

The FDAC "no fee" membership provides different opportunities to volunteer and opens the door to incredibly rewarding experiences. If you have a passion to make a difference in your community, the FDAC is actively recruiting community and business leaders. Our aim is to have ample representation from each of the three response areas within the Freedom Division.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

The ideal candidate is interested in reducing crime in our communities through partnerships with CMPD, as well as other citizens, businesses and public agencies. Council membership will be representative of ethnic, civic, business, religious and educational groups to best include the interest and needs of the people living and working within the Freedom Division boundaries.

FREQUENT Q&A

- Do I have to be a member to attend any FDAC sponsored event?
- No, you are not required to be a member to attend FDAC events. We encourage active participation for our communities.
- Can I become a member even if I am a convicted felon?
- Being a convicted felon does not automatically disqualify you from becoming a member. However, recent criminal activity can disqualify you from becoming a member.
- How long does it take to become a member?
- Our application process can take up to 30-days to be processed. However, you may attend events even if your application has not been approved.
- Does my community have to have a community watch program to participate?
- No, however as a member, we will work with you to implement a community watch program in your community.
- Does my community have to have a HOA Board to participate?
- No, several of the communities in the CMPD-Freedom Division are not HOA communities.

COMMUNITY MEMBERSHIP

Required Skills

Council members represent the interest and needs of the people living in our community. No specific skills required.

Community Member Requirement

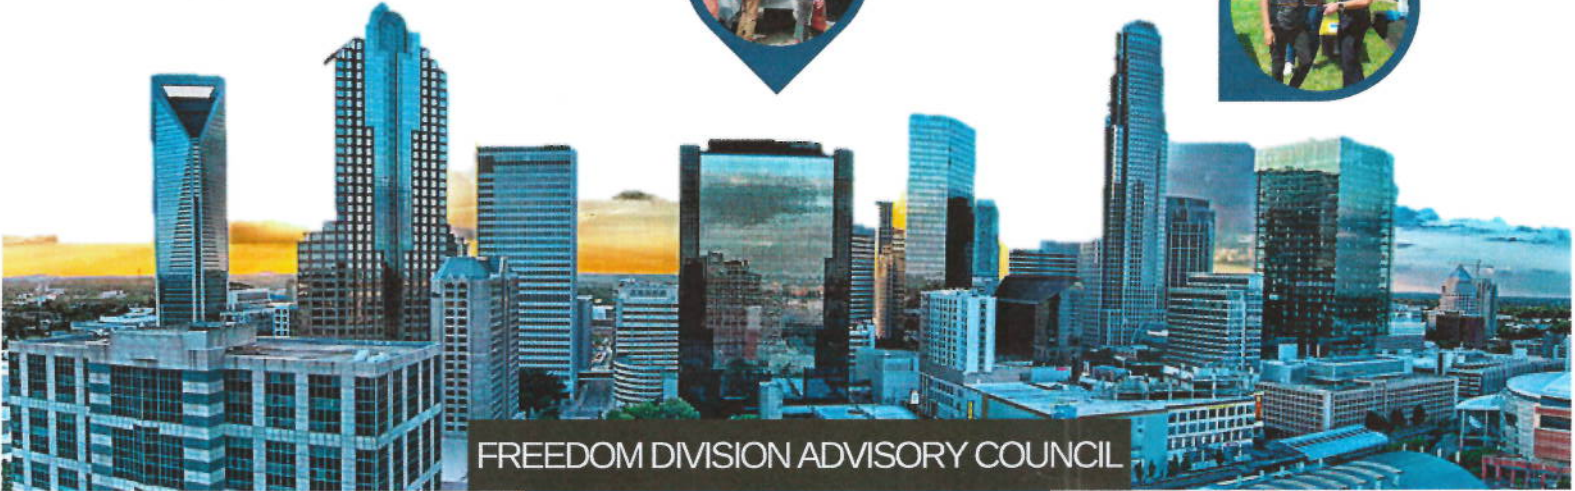

Any community member that resides or business leader that is within the boundaries of CMPD Freedom Division.

- Members are required to attend quarterly meetings.
- Members must complete a ride along with CMPD.
- Members will be vetted and a criminal background check is completed.

BUSINESS PARTNERS

CMPD-Freedom Division has numerous businesses that service our community. The FDAC recognizes that business partners are vital members in our community because they impact the crime and safety.

Business partner memberships provide an opportunity for the businesses to communicate and problem solve with the neighborhoods they service.

FREEDOM DIVISION ADVISORY COUNCIL

ABOUT US

The Freedom Division Advisory Council (FDAC) is comprised of community leaders and business representatives that reside or work within the boundaries of the (CMPD) Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department Freedom Division. CMPD recognizes that it alone can not provide public safety. We believe public safety emanates from the active involvement of many public agencies, CMPD, neighborhood residents, churches, and businesses.

IDENTIFY

We are committed to identifying crime, safety and quality of life issues that negatively impact our communities.

DEVELOPE

We work with CMPD, other City-County departments and our business partners to resolve community problems.

IMPLEMENT

We recommend and implement programs to reduce crime, improve safety, build community and improve the quality of the life in our communities.
